"Leading Local Paper,"

Mayville correspondent of The Commonwealth says it is currently reported that The Chicago Tribune and the Tribune-Lakeview have arranged to have both papers delivered to The Laborer's city subscribers at fifty cents a month—just the price now charged for The Tribune alone. The Laborer is happy, however, and Tribune is lucky if the report be true. It is said that The Tribune is combining thus the leading local papers all up and down the Lake. It remains to see how the combined rates will meet this department's business.

PRAIRIE FIRES

Swoop Down Upon Five Towns in Minnesota.

The Stricken Villages Newly Established Mining Camps.

Thousands of People on Foot, Wagon and Train Had Barely Time to Make Their Escape. The Loss Will Reach Up Into the Millions.

DULUTH, Minn., June 19.—The result of a year of enterprise on the Mesabi range has been wiped out in a single day. Advice received Sunday indicated that the towns of Virginia and Mountain Iron had been destroyed and that Biwabik was partially, if not entirely, wiped out by fire. It is impossible to estimate the loss, but it will approximate $1,000,000 and several thousand people are homeless. For three weeks the range has been in danger. Forest fires have been burning on all sides of the new mining towns, and only by the greatest efforts has the disaster of Sunday been so long averted.

Saturday the first news was received which indicated any serious danger. Up to this time the range towns had fought the fire for several days, but so far as possible, kept the news of their danger from reaching the outside world for fear their prospects might be injured. On Saturday evening General Manager Philbin, of the Mesabi and Northern road, received advice which convinced him that the danger was imminent, and he went to Virginia to look after the interest of his road, which touches most of the mining towns. The fire at this time was all about the village, but there was every reason to believe it could be kept under control. This morning a strong wind blew up and the greatest part of the town was doomed. The first news came from General Manager Philbin, who telegraphed at 2 o'clock to President Merritt, of the road.

Men, women and children loaded on cars ready to leave. For God's sake send us aid."

At nearly the same time messages were received from the other range towns. The operator at Mountain Iron telegraphed that the town was burning, and the Duluth and Iron Range operator at Biwabik wired to President Greatsinger, of his road:

"Goods removed from depot. Good-bye."

Since that time the fires at Biwabik have been down. The Mesabi officials state that their advice at Biwabik has been saved, but the indications are that the village has shared the fate of Virginia. At 6:15 p. m. Mr. Philbin telegraphed: "The whole town of Virginia, including freight-house, is burned. We are bringing women and children here, and have two engines trying to get the cars out."

In Duluth the news was followed by immediate preparations to care for the hundreds of homeless people. A special train was ordered, and the Great Northern, of the Duluth and Iron Range road, and carloads of provisions were ordered.

The last advices from the vicinity of Virginia are that 1,100 people, mostly women and children, had been loaded on cars and taken to Duluth. A train was expected at 8 o'clock Monday morning, and preparations were being made to care for the sufferers.

President Spencer, of the council, the acting mayor, has authorized a gift of $1,000 from the city, and all the provisions that may be needed for immediate relief. A special meeting of the council and a citizens' meeting have been called for Monday morning. Ample aid will be offered the suffering people.

Sunday night communication with the Range was almost out of the latest advices from the Range and Merritt to the list of towns burned. It was the village of 300 people, and was only about a mile from Biwabik.

Unknown Man Commits Suicide.
New York, June 19.—An unknown man committed suicide Sunday night by jumping from the Brooklyn bridge into the East river. His body was shortly afterward recovered. On his body was found a card bearing the name Timothy Caldwell, 32 Palmetto street, Boston; also, a collar with the name of the name Margaret A. Mulnekin, aged 26, died June 10, 1893. The man was five feet eight or nine inches tall, dark complexion, black hair, short, dark moustache.

The Campaign's Westward Trip.
QUEENSTOWN, June 19.—The Cunard steamer Campania left this night 10:30 Sunday afternoon and it is evident the determination of those in command to break the western record or to come as near it as possible. The huge steamer made the passage down the channel from Liverpool in ten hours and twenty minutes and during the whole of that time the sea was calm. The most admirable manner, so as to auger well for the rest of the voyage.

IN OCTOBER

A Sailor Recently Declared He Had Killed the Bordens.
SPRINGFIELD, O., June 19.—Charles H. Berry, a well-known real estate man and politician, is likely to play an important part in solving the mystery which hangs over the great Bordens murder at New Bedford, Mass. Last October a stranger came to this city and sought Mr. Berry, who then ran an employment agency, for work. Mr. Berry's kind treatment gained the fellow's confidence, and he confided to him that he was a criminal, and had murdered the Bordens up at New Bedford for revenge; also that he was a sailor.

This sustains the theory that the murder was committed by a sailor for some wrong inflicted on his father by Mr. Bordens many years ago. The stranger wanted to give himself up and finally disappeared. Mr. Berry gave the matter no attention until he read in a local paper a dispatch from Newark, N. J., telling of a similar story being told there to a barber by a stranger who assembled in every particular the mysterious man who was here. Mr. Berry communicated with the eastern authorities and is now awaiting an answer.

A WATERSPOUT.

A Large Number of People Drowned in a Mexico Village.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 19.—The town of Utermatlan has been visited by a terrible waterspout, which resulted in loss of life and great damage. The waterspout burst unexpectedly over the town at midnight. In a few minutes the flood had reached the entire town, the water rising to the height of four feet inside the houses.

The people were panic stricken, and in attempting to escape from the flood many men, women and children were drowned. A great many families were homeless, and the city council has decided that place has issued an appeal asking other towns to come to their relief.

They were received here Friday from sporting parties of the two cities, with instructions to let them go and ask no questions. Agents are stationed at the hotel between the two cities, to report by wire the arrival of the pigeons. The pigeons will next be sent to Chicago.

Catholic Priests Poisoned.

DENVER, Colo., June 19.—About 30 persons were poisoned by eating ice cream during a banquet at the dedicatory service at St. Francis hospital, and some are seriously ill. Among the victims are most of the Catholic priests of the city and several of the sisters at the hospital, as well as a number of prominent Catholics. Father O'Ryan is in a serious condition. It is not thought any of the cases will prove fatal. How the poison got into the cream has not been ascertained.

ENRPERISS, Ky., June 19.—The report published in the papers that Hon. A. L. OPEN ON SUNDAY

Chief Justice Fuller's Decision Settles It.

The Restraining Injunction of the Federal Court Lifted.

And the Case Remanded to the Circuit Court.—The World's Fair Director Claims a Great Victory.—The Russian Exhibit Opened Saturday.

CHICAGO, June 19.—Chief Justice Fuller Saturday morning overruled the decision of the federal court which issued an injunction restraining the directors from opening the fair on Sunday. He decides for the United States court of appeals, and remands the suit to the circuit court.

The attempt on the part of the government to enforce Sunday closing followed at once the vote of the World's fair directors on Tuesday, May 28, that for a seven day fair. Sunday, May 29, the suit being entitled "The United States of America vs. The World's Columbian Exposition, H. E. Higginbotham, D. H. Burnell, Edmund Lee, George R. Davis and Horace Tucker." This is the suit on which the appeal was taken.

Without action the suit went over Sunday until arguments could be heard. A decision in favor of the complainants was rendered by Judges Woods and Jenkins, sitting on the circuit bench, while Judge Grosscup dissented. Application for a supersedeas, pending hearing on an appeal, was made by the defendants and Chief Justice Fuller granted the order last Saturday staying the effect of the circuit court decision until an appeal could be heard. This week Justices Fuller, Rupp and Allen have been hearing the appeal.

Strange religious rituals were observed in the opening of the Russian exhibit in the manufacturers building Saturday. At 11 o'clock richly robed priests held services, according to the ritual of the Greek church in the Asiatic pavilion. Commissioner General P. de Glaukhovskoy and other members of the commission, a number of exhibitors and others attended the services. The ceremonies were conducted by the bishop of the Russian-Greek church of Alaska, assisted by local priests.

The blessing of God was asked upon the czar of Russia and the president of the United States. The bishop, dipping his hands in holy water, then spread out the entire section dedicating it to the glory of the church and the advancement of the human race. During the services the Russian bells were rung. After the ceremonies had been concluded, the guests were tendered a reception. They were received at the entrance to the pavilion by Commissioner Glaukhovskoy and Admiral Kosakoff, and the members of the commission. The famous Franck chorals sang during the reception and luncheon was served.

The exhibit which has been placed by Russia compare favorably with that of any of her sister nations. The raising of cotton in Asia was only begun in 1854, and not enough cotton is being grown for home use. The crop of 1893 was so excellent in quality that it was called "marvel cotton." The Russians manufacture an astonishing variety of articles from cotton. The show cases are like beds of brilliantly hued flowers and the designs are curious and novel. There are thirty-three cotton, wool and silk goods exhibitors, the majority coming from Moscow. There are other articles displayed, but particular efforts have been made in cotton, wool and silk line.

The Kaiser Takes Captivity to Task.

THE FAIR ON SUNDAY

Owing to Sultry Weather the Attendance Did Not Exceed 30,000.

CHICAGO, June 19.—The crowd at Jackson park was smaller Sunday than last Sunday and the attendance did not exceed 30,000. This, no doubt, was due to the weather as the day was extremely warm and sultry. Those who walked around the grounds and through the buildings of the White City were plentiful objects of discomfort. Lined out its starchiness and dropped the dish rags upon the well worn forms of the World's fair visitors. The chair pushers did a thriving business, as did also the lemonade, soda water and ice cream concessionaires. This was really the first hot day that has visited this city since the fair opened and it rendered necessary for any but those whose means would enable them to rent a rolling chair anything but pleasant. The same class of people as on preceding Sunday passed through the turnstiles. Owing to the hot weather there was very little enthusiasm displayed and the working men were conspicuous for their absence. The government exhibits were closed as usual to the public. Most of the state buildings were open. The crowd that visited the city parks Sunday, and their numbers were legion, running up into the tens of thousands were typical laboring men and their families. Gard, Washington, Lincoln and other breathing spots of the great city were crowded all day.

TWO BREAKS

In the Mississippi River Near New Orleans—Much Damage Will Result.

NEW ORLEANS, June 19.—About 7 o'clock Sunday night two breaks occurred on the east bank of the Mississippi river, one above and one below the city. The former from present indications will prove as disastrous as the famous Nite crevasse. It is about forty-seven miles long, representing a break in the levee of the Mississippi river, directly in front of St. Peter's settlement and immediately to the side of the levee. The crevasse has been caused by the pressure of the waters at the first instance. The alarm was immediately sounded, but there being no material in the vicinity nothing could be done towards closing it. The spot is a very bad one for a crevasse to occur. The levee is a high one, about twelve feet, and owing to the action of the water, being a sweeping curve in the river, the bank is aaving. There is a fully thirty feet water just above shore. This will practically make it impossible to close the break. The water will flood a vast area of land under cultivation, principally as sugar plantations and the damage will be incalculable. This crevasse is about twelve miles below the point of the Nite break, and will inundate all the country affected by it.

THE TARIFF BILL

Owing to Criticism From Ultra Protectionists It May Be Amended.

NEW YORK, June 19.—Chairman E. Ellery Anderson has summoned the new club committee which drafted the tariff bill, to meet on Tuesday next at the office of the executive committee, to the office of Charles S. Fairchild. "The object of the meeting," said Mr. Anderson, "is to review the draft of the bill and perhaps to make some amendments to it. Since it was promulgated it has provoked severe criticism from ultra protectionists. But that was to be expected and we regard it as a first rate endorsement of it, but those who would be inclined to go with us on general principles have made certain suggestions which ought not to be ignored. We have not held at any time that the bill was absolutely perfect. Its publication has resulted in advice which is surely worthy of consideration."

Federal Patronage

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Senator Butler, of South Carolina has addressed a letter to some of his constituents regarding the president's course in dispensing federal patronage. He thinks the chief executive is fully capable of making people for the offices. Since he holds himself ready to give to the president his opinion of continental fitness for office, he does not understand how senators or representatives can expect Mr. Cleveland to abdicate his constitutional duties and delegate them to congressmen, and says he was surprised to find that some of his constituents expect or desire to assume them.

Elevator Boys' Frightful Death

NEW YORK, June 19.—William Henderson, colored, aged 19, met with a frightful death Sunday, at the West-minster apartment house, 115 West Sixteenth street where he was employed as an elevator boy. The elevator stopped running about noon and when an investigation was made Henderson's body was found dangling between the cage door and the ceiling of the elevator of the first floor. When the engineer started the machinery again the body came down and fell into the pit. Henderson must have fallen in a few minutes.
